

FEEGI Second Meeting - San Marino, California--April 3-4, 1998

Friday, April 3

- 9-10:45      The Mapping of New Worlds
1. Felipe Gorostiza Arroyo, University of Pennsylvania, "Mapping Cosmopolis: Readings of Mexico-Tenochtitlan, 1325-1525"
  2. Jorge Cafizares Esguerra, Illinois State University, "New World, New Stars: European Representations of New American Constellations and the Fashioning of a Patriotic Astrology in 17th-Century Spanish America"
  3. Nancy Shoemaker, University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire, "Land Marks: How American Indians and Europeans Wrote Their Presence on the Landscape in 18th Century North America East of the Mississippi River"
- Chair: Norman Thrower, University of California - Los Angeles
- 11-12:45      Law and European Expansion
1. Laura Benton, Rutgers University, "European Expansion and the Origins of the Global Legal Order: Replicating Legal Definitions of "Otherness" in Colonial Mexico and India"
  2. Peter Karsten, University of Pittsburgh, "Animal Trespasses, the Problem of Social Costs, and High and Low Legal Cultures of the British Diaspora, 1600-1900: The Case of the Maori"
  3. Gale Luquette, 15th Judicial District Court (Abbeville, Louisiana), "Legal Implications of Acadian Exile"
- Chair:
- 1-2:00      Lunch
- 2-3:45      Early-Modern Europe in Global Exchange: A Round-Table Discussion
1. Kumkum Chatterjee, The Pennsylvania State University
  2. Joan Landes, The Pennsylvania State University
  3. Gregg Roeber, The Pennsylvania State University
  4. Guido Ruggiero, The Pennsylvania State University
- 4-6:00      Spiritual Conquests: Religion & Missionaries in the 17th Century
1. Saliba Belmessous, École des Hautes Études en Sciences Sociales, "The Policy of Frenchification in 17th-Century New France"
  2. Brian Gollnick, University of California- San Diego, "Brother Guillen's Lament: Reading for the Subaltern on the Margins of the Maya Region, circa 1695"
  3. Neal Salisbury, Smith College, "The Juggernaut and the Trickster: Assessing Native-Missionary Encounters in 17th-Century New England"
  4. Qiong Zhang, Berkeley, California, "Demystifying Qi: The Politics of Cultural Translation and Interpretation in the Early Jesuit Mission to China"
- Chair: Rose Beiler, University of Central Florida
- 6:00      Reception: Robert C. Ritchie, Director of Research, Huntington Library, Host

Saturday, April 4

9-10:45 Control & Resistance

1. Steven Hackel, Oregon State University, "Spanish Scribes and Indian Witnesses in Colonial California, 1769-1820: How Indians Viewed the Imposition of Spanish Authority"
2. Maria Montoya, University of Michigan, "Challenges to European Investment in the American West: The Lure of the Mythic West and the Reality of Local Resistance, c. 1850"
3. Raul Jose Mandrini, Universidad Nacional del Centro (Tandil, Argentina), "The Impact of Contact with Spaniards on the Pampean Indians, 1800s"

Chair:

11-12:45 Trade & Empire

1. Steve Pincus, University of Chicago, "Empire and Late-17th-Century Political Economy"
2. Carla Pestana, Ohio State University, "Free Trade and Unfree Labor: The Planter/Merchant Contest over Anglo-American Trade in the Middle of the 17th Century"
3. Tamar Herzog, University of Chicago, "Commercial Identities and the Shaping of Collective Identities in the Spanish Empire during the 17th and 18th Centuries"

Chair: Carole Shammas, University of Southern California

1-2:00 Lunch and Business Meeting

2-3:45 Western Europe's Overseas Plantations

1. James Horn, University of Brighton, "The Conquest of Eden: Possession and Dominion in Early Virginia, 1584-1625"
2. Alison Games, Georgetown University, "Eden's Revenge: The Madagascar and Assada Plantations, 1635-1650"
3. Jane Landers, Vanderbilt University, "An American Crusade: 17th-Century Spanish Expeditions Against the Maroons"

Chair: David Sacks, Reed College

4-6:00 The Migration of the Mind

1. Claudia Schnurmann, Georg-August-University (Göttingen), "Inter-colonial Communications between Surinam and Barbados, 1667-1702".
2. Peter Mancall, University of Kansas, "Botanical Knowledge: European Minds and American Plants, 1550-1650"
3. David Mikosz, Churchill College - Cambridge University, "Universal Languages and Euro-centric Views, 1600-1850"
4. Roy MacLeod, University of Sydney, "European Expansion and Metropolitan Museums of Natural History, 1780-1895"

Chair:

8:00 Dinner

Talk: "World Trade on the Spanish Frontier: Artifacts and Documents from the Santa Barbara Presidio," by Giorgio Perissinotto. University of California - Santa Barbara, and Catherine Rudolph, Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation