

F.E.E.G.I.

FORUM ON EUROPEAN EXPANSION AND GLOBAL INTERACTION

*Third Biennial Meeting
Flagler College
St. Augustine, Florida
February 17-19, 2000*

FORUM ON EUROPEAN EXPANSION
AND
GLOBAL INTERACTION
Meeting Schedule

Thursday, February 17, 2000, Flagler College Grand Ball Room

7:30 P.M. OPENING REMARKS

William L. Proctor, President, Flagler College

Thomas Graham, Flagler College & Historic St. Augustine Research Institute

7:45-9:30 FIRST SPANISH CONTACTS IN THE CARIBBEAN
AND FLORIDA

Kathleen A. Deagan, University of Florida & Historic St. Augustine Research Institute

"The Archaeology of the First Spanish Cities in the Caribbean: Concepcion de la Vega, Hispaniola"

Eugene Lyon, Flagler College and University of Florida, Emeritus

"The Uncovering of Santa Elena: A Case Study in Ethnohistoric Collaboration"

Bonnie G. McEwan, San Luis Archaeological and Historic Site

"The Spiritual Conquest of Spanish Florida: Mortuary Data from the Missions"

Michael Gannon, University of Florida & Historic St. Augustine Research Institute, Chair/Discussion Moderator

Friday, February 18, 2000, Flagler College Grand Ball Room

8:00-9:30 A.M. CITIES AND TRADE

Kayoko Fujita, Leiden University

"Taiwan as a Transit Port of Precious Metals, 1633-1668"

Rebecca Shumway Manelski, Emory University

"How Africa Exploited Europe: Regulation and Manipulation in the Atlantic Trade on the Gold Coast"

Bhaswati Bhattacharya, Leiden University

"Competition or Co-operation? The Relationship Between European and Indian Merchants in Indian Port Towns, 1750-1850"

Robert S. DuPlessis, Swarthmore College

"Colonial Cities and the Contours of Consumption in the Eighteenth-Century North Atlantic"

Karen O. Kupperman, New York University, Chair/Discussion Moderator

9:30-9:45 Coffee Break in the Rotunda

9:45-11:15 NATURE, SCIENCE, AND EXPANSION

Peter Mancall, University of Kansas

"The Wonders of the Sea in the Sixteenth-Century Atlantic"

Harry Liebersohn, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

"Scientific Travelers in Hawaii, 1815-1830"

Iris H. Engstrand, University of San Diego

"Spanish Naturalists in Cuba and the West Indies, 1785-1800"

Robert Lowell, University of Texas

"King George's Sandbox: Playing at Politics, Science and Empire in the Royal

Rosemary Brana-Shute, College of Charleston, Chair/Discussion Moderator

Friday, February 18, 2000, Flagler College Grand Ball Room

11:25-12:40 INTERSTITIAL PEOPLE AND CULTURAL BROKERS

Mark Meuwese, University Of Notre Dame

"Cross-Cultural Sex and Colonial Community Building from a Comparative Perspective: Intimate Relations between Dutch Men and Native Women in New York and Ghana, Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries"

Elisee Soumonni, Universite Nationale du Benin

"Between the British and the French: The Contrasting Fortunes of the Afro-Brazilian Communities of Ouidah and Lagos"

Holly Snyder, Brandeis University

"Jews and the Cosmology of 'Place' in British American Port Towns, 1700-1800"

James Williams, Middle Tennessee State University, Chair/Discussion Moderator

12:45-2:15 Lunch and Business Meeting

2:30-4:00 IMPERIAL PERIPHERIES

Joyce Chaplin, Vanderbilt University

"Arctic Outpost: The English Mining Camp at Kodlunarn, 1577-78"

Ignacio Gallup-Diaz, Bryn Mawr College

"War, Race and Indian Politics in the Darien: The Spanish Attempt to Establish an Eastern Panama Frontier, 1739-1751"

Mary Karasch, Oakland University

"The Periphery of the Periphery: Vila Boa de Goias, 1780-1835"

Christon I. Archer, University of Calgary

"Native Responses to European Expansion in the North Pacific, 1750-1850"

Murdo MacLeod, University of Florida, Chair/Discussion Moderator

4:00-4:15 Coffee Break in the Rotunda

4:15-5:30 SLAVE HEALTH, MEDICINE, AND HEALING

Susie Minchin, University of London and Linda Newson, University of London

"Slave Diet and Health During the Final Passage: Cartagena de Indias to Lima in the Early 17th Century"

James Sweet, University of Wisconsin, Appleton

"Recreating Africa: Mbundu `Calundu' Rituals and Portuguese Response in Seventeenth-Century Brazil"

George Michael La Rue, Clarion University of Pennsylvania

"Of Sickness and Slavery: French Medical Doctors in Egypt and the Trans-Sahara Slave Trade, 1798-1858"

Jane Landers, Vanderbilt University, Chair/Discussion Moderator

6:00-8:00 Reception, St. Augustine Historical Society's Oldest House (14 St. Francis St.)

Saturday, February 19, 2000, Flagler College Grand Ball Room

8:00-9:30 A.M. SLAVE TRADE

Paul Lovejoy, York University and David Richardson, University of Hull
"Letters of the Old Calabar Slave Trade, 1761-1789"

Donald Wright, SUNY-Cortland

"Agents in the King's Pound: An Examination of Authority Around European Outposts On Africa's West Coast"

Ty Reese, Indiana University of Pennsylvania

"Administering the Slave Trade: The Multifarious Functions of Cape Coast Castle, 1750-1790"

Markus Vink, SUNY-Fredonia

"A Work of Compassion: The Dutch Slave Trade in the Indian Ocean in the Seventeenth Century"

Ralph Austen, University of Chicago, Chair/Discussion Moderator

Saturday, February 19, 2000, Flagler College Grand Ball Room

9:30-9:45 Coffee Break in the Rotunda

9:45-11:15 THE SPANISH GLOBAL EMPIRE

Andrew Wilson, United States Naval War College

"Sino-Spanish Collaboration and the Making of Colonial Manila, 1571-1834"

Kris E. Lane, College of William and Mary

"Gold, Silk, Wine, and Wool: Patterns of the Quito Trade, circa 1599"

Bruce P. Lenman, University of St. Andrews

"Port Cities and `Pirates': Problems and Opportunities in Trying to Pull the Nails out of the Fabric of the Early-Modern Spanish Global Empire"

Donald C. Cutter, University of New Mexico

"Spain's Last Attempt at Empire, 1790-1792"

Amy Turner Bushnell, College of Charleston, Chair/Discussion Moderator

11:25-12:45 COSMOPOLITANISM AND IDENTITIES IN TRANSITION

Alison F. Games, Georgetown University

"English Cosmopolitans and the Mediterranean Origins of the First British Empire"

James Robertson, University of the West Indies, Mona

"Spanish Town, Jamaica: A Colonial Capital in the Atlantic World"

Jorge Canizares Esguerra, SUNY- Buffalo

"Post-Colonialism 'avant la lettre'? Patriotic Epistemology in Eighteenth-Century Colonial Spanish America"

David Hancock, University of Michigan, Chair/Discussion Moderator

1:00-2:15 Lunch (on your own)

Saturday, February 19, 2000, Flagler College Grand Ball Room

2:30-4:00 CITIES, ENTREPOTS, AND OUTPOSTS ON
RUSSIA'S EASTERN FRONTIER, 1550-1770

Matthew P. Romaniello, Ohio State University

"Monastic Colonization on the Russian Frontier: Urban Networks in the Volga-Ural Region, 1552-1682"

Brian J. Boeck, Harvard University

"Raid, Trade, or Crusade? Patterns of Interaction on the Russian-Ottoman Steppe Frontier"

Peter B. Brown, Rhode Island College

"Soft Frontier Expansion, Weak Urban Centers, Soft Cash and Hard Bigotry: Seventeenth-Century Russian Expansion in Siberia"

Eva-Marie Stolberg, University of Bonn

"Interracial Cities in Siberia: Nerchinsk, Kyakhta, and the Russo-
Chinese Trade in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries"

William M. Reger IV, Illinois State University, Chair/Discussion Moderator

4:00-4:15 Coffee Break in the Rotunda

4:15-5:45 ARCHAEOLOGY OF CITIES AND TRADE

Uzi Baram, New College of the University of South Florida

"Contributions to a Historical Archaeology of the Ottoman Empire:
Artifacts of Trade and Social Change in Palestine"

Eric Klingelhofer, Mercer University

"Lost Colonies: the Search for Raleigh's Outposts"

Audrey Horning, Colonial Williamsburg Foundation

"Jamestown, 1607-1699: Archaeology of an English Colonial Capital in a Global Perspective"

Andrew Edwards, Colonial Williamsburg Foundation

"Williamsburg and Yorktown: Virginia's Second Capital and its Famous Seaport"

Meaghan Duff, Western Kentucky University, Chair/Discussion Moderator

Saturday, February 19, 2000

6:00-7:00 P.M. On your own

8:00 Dinner, Markland, Flagler College

James G. Cusick, P. K. Yonge Library of Florida History, University of Florida
"Spanish Florida as Colonial Borderland, 1784-1821: Trade, Travel, Culture and the Atlantic World"

Sunday, February 20, 2000

9:00 A.M. Fountain of Youth Park

Visit to the excavation of the first settlement of Pedro Menendez de Aviles by Kathleen A. Deagan and students

The Forum on European Expansion and Global interaction wouldlike to gratefully acknowledge the generous support of Flagler College, The .St. Augustine Historical Society, The College of Arts and Science and The Department of History, Vanderbilt University

I

Cover: View of the Alrazar and Ponce de Leon Hotels (now Flagler College) built by Henry Flagler during the 1880s, St. Augustine, Florida.